

Foundation Stage

Spring One 2018

Communication and Language

- Listening to a range of stories- responding, re-telling, acting, discussing and questioning.
- Rhyming stories/identifying rhyming words.
- Responding to 'What if?' questions.
- Asking and responding to questions.

Books

Tyrannosaurus Drip, Mad about Dinosaurs, Harry and the Bucketful of Dinosaurs, What if there's a T-Rex in town?, Non-fiction books about Dinosaurs.

Personal, Social and Emotional Development

- Caring for Dinosaur eggs.
- Responding to 'What if?' questions.
- Discussing and accepting differences, likes and dislikes.
- Look at how we can care for/help endangered animals today and avoid extinction.
- Discuss Chinese New Year and Chinese New Year traditions.

Physical Development

- Dance- moving in different ways using a variety of stimuli.
- Multi-skills-learning about games play and using a variety of games equipment.
- Funky Fingers skill development.

British Values

Chinese New Year celebrations and traditions.

RE

The religious value of Friendship

Who's that roaring?

Literacy

- What's inside my egg writing.
- Comparing and describing dinosaurs.
- Finding information out about different dinosaurs and creating our own fact sheets about them.
- Creating alternative endings to dinosaur stories.
- Writing dinosaur facts on the computer.
- Using non-fiction books.

Snack skills

Tasting meats/vegetables, Dinosaur biscuits, fruit and vegetable dinosaurs, flapjack and Chinese banquet tasting.

Mathematics

- Sharing eggs between different numbers of nests.
- Ordering and measuring dinosaur footprints.
- 2D and 3D shape....create Shape dinosaur pictures.
- Dinosaur take away!
- Favourite dinosaur surveys.
- More/less/place value and estimating dinosaurs.
- Number bonds to 10, doubling and halving.
- Reasoning-explaining mathematical operations.

Understanding the World

- Caring for living things and the environment.
- Learning about Volcanoes.
- Animal and Dinosaur identification and facts..
- ICT- 2 Publish, 2 Graph.
- Clicker 7—to create dinosaur sentences.

Expressive Arts and Design

- Observational drawings of dinosaurs, and then adding texture.
- Drawing what might be inside our 'special eggs'.
- Constructing an interactive wall display of a dinosaur world.
- Handprint dinosaur pictures.
- Dinosaur skin printing.
- Making fossils.
- Salt dough Volcanoes.

